PMI Belgium National Congress 2017

PM Fair

WHEN

FRIDAY, 6 OCTOBER 2017

Please mark your calendars for the Project Management event of the year – The PM Fair 2017 that will take place on Friday, 6 October 2017.

The PM Fair is a very special event for the Project Management Community in Belgium where we make your learning experience fun. An event that will encourage you to enhance your professional knowledge and skills by providing you the latest tools, techniques and trends that are essential for your success.

WHERE

DE MONTIL, AFFLIGEM

Our venue team has carefully selected De Montil for the PM Fair 2017 keeping in mind the quality of amenities and services required for a high class congress.

De Montil offers a central location with a large car park and excellent catering. The meeting rooms are equipped with modern audio-visual facilities.

THEME:

THE PROJECT MANAGER COMPASS

The objective of the PM Fair is to help you develop and expand the compass of your project management skills each year. With this in mind, the theme we have chosen for PM Fair 2017 is “The Project Manager Compass”.

The Project Manager Compass is based on the Project Manager Competence Development Framework and is aligned with the PMI talent triangle. The especially designed tracks of the PM compass will assist you to orientate yourself towards your personal development goals, and to navigate in the direction that best fits your chosen path and targets.

BECOME A VOLUNTEER

The organization of the PM Fair is a huge project with varied tasks that requires many skilled hands from start to finish, in order to deliver a high class congress. This important annual event is realized with the help of a dedicated team of volunteers. We are looking for more volunteers to join our passionate PM Fair 2017 team.

Volunteering with PMI can provide you with opportunities that enable you to share your knowledge and experience with other professionals. It will give you a global perspective of how project managers work in various industries. It will also help you to further strengthen your project management skills.

If you wish to join our enthusiastic team, please contact Anja Vandenberg at: anja.vandenberg@pmi-belgium.be

BECOME A SPEAKER/PRESENTER

The PM Fair provides a great podium to the speakers/presenters who want to share their knowledge with the elite project management community of Belgium. It offers an opportunity for open discussions and exchange of ideas with like-minded people. Each year, distinguished speakers from different countries and professional backgrounds participate in the PM Fair to present various project management related topics. However, we are always looking for new talents. This is a golden chance for you to become a speaker.

If you have an exciting project journey, experience, lessons learned, techniques, new skills that you want to share with our PM Community, please contact Anja Vandenberg at: anja.vandenberg@pmi-belgium.be

BECOME AN EXHIBITOR OR A SPONSOR

Organizing the PMI Belgium National Congress is challenging without sponsors. Sponsoring the event will give you an ideal opportunity to present your company directly to all participants as well as to the Belgium project management community through our well-developed communication network. You can also have direct access to over 1300 Professional Project Managers, and through them to their companies and their business contacts. We have several sponsor packages that fit all budgets.

If you wish to exhibit your products or services or sponsor PM Fair 2017, or need further information, please contact Anja Vandenberg at: anja.vandenberg@pmi-belgium.be
